PARTNERSHIP PROPOSAL

Together, we can change lives.

The Syndy Emade Foundation stands with vulnerable children and families in Cameroon. Since its launch on 11 July 2019, every outreach has been documented with a date, a place and a public source.

600+
displaced children equipped for school

300
children's school fees paid

200+
displaced people given food at our first outreach

10
documented activities since July 2019

What we have done

- Back to school 2019: supplies for 600+ displaced children and school fees for 300 (Douala)
- COVID-19 safety kits for a school in Limbe, with the Elone Foundation (2020)
- Food and essentials for displaced families at Bonaberi (2019, 2020, 2021)
- Buckets, soap, umbrellas and a meal with children living on the street (2021)
- A year's rent on a new home for a visually impaired mother and her three sons (2023)

Five strategic pillars

Education & Youth Development Active
Humanitarian Relief Active
Women Empowerment Emerging
Community Development Proposed
Environmental Sustainability Proposed

Why partner with us

- A track record you can check: every outreach is documented on film or in the press
- Transparent reporting: each partnership gets a public project record with objectives, activities, outcomes and evidence
- Reach: a founder who is one of Cameroon's best-known actresses and producers
- Local knowledge: our team visits homes first, so support reaches those who need it most

Ways to partner

- Fund a project in an established programme (e.g. the annual back-to-school campaign)
- Sponsor a "One Act of Kindness" campaign for one specific, verified need
- Help build a proposed pillar: women's economic opportunity, community development, environment
- In-kind support: school supplies, food, logistics, professional skills

How it works

1. Tell us what you would like to support
2. We agree a project, its objectives and how results will be reported
3. The project is delivered and documented
4. Results are published on our Accountability page and shared with you
